

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

Teaching Geography in and about Europe

TORUŃ, OCTOBER 5–7, 2006

THURSDAY, 5 October 2006
4 ⁰⁰ pm – 6 ⁰⁰ pm	Arrival at the Hotel Filmar, 45 Grudziądzka Str. and registration of the conference participants in the National Centre for Further Training of Geography Teachers (NCFTGT) , 9 PCK Str.
6 ¹⁰ pm – 6 ³⁰ pm	Welcome and conference opening in the NCFTGT by Antoni Stark , the President of the Association of Polish Adult Educators, Toruń Branch Karl Donert , the President of the EUROGEO and the HERODOT network coordinator
6 ³⁰ pm – 6 ⁴⁵ pm	Welcome speech by Michał Zaleski , the President of Toruń
6 ⁴⁵ pm – 7 ¹⁵ pm	Presentation	Karl Donert (Liverpool Hope University) Geoinformation and education: a revolution waiting to happen in Europe
7 ³⁰ pm – 9 ³⁰ pm	Welcome dinner at the Restaurant, 17 Grudziądzka Str.
FRIDAY, 6 October 2006
8 ⁰⁰ am – 8 ¹⁵ am	Arrival at 10th Higher Secondary School in Toruń in Toruń, św. Katarzyny Square (by bus)
8 ²⁰ am – 8 ⁴⁵ am	Welcome speech by Andrzej Drozdowski , the Headmaster of the 10th Higher Secondary School in Toruń
8 ⁵⁵ am – 11 ³⁰ am	Geography lessons taught in English by: Małgorzata Kubik (Gdynia Bilingual High School No 3, IB School No 0704) Population distribution John Little (European School of Culham) Introduction to the UK Aleksandra Zaparucha (10th Higher Secondary School in Toruń), Map reading
11 ³⁰ am – 12 ¹⁵ pm	Speech by Maria Mazur , the representative of the Department of International Cooperation in the Ministry of National Education
12 ³⁰ pm – 1 ³⁰ pm	Lunch at the Restaurant, 12 Piastowska Str.
1 ³⁰ pm – 1 ⁴⁵ pm	Arrival at the NCFTGT (by bus)
2 ⁰⁰ pm – 3 ³⁰ pm	Presentations	Daniela Schmeinck (Pädagogische Hochschule Karlsruhe) Too late or too early - Teaching Geography in Primary School
		Andrew Powell & Jonathan Edwards (Kingston University) Teaching about Europe on a Primary BA Teaching Degree Course
		Olivier Mentz (Pädagogische Hochschule Freiburg) Europe matters! 10 reasons why School Geography should teach a European dimension
3 ³⁰ am – 3 ⁴⁵ am	Coffee break
3 ⁴⁵ pm – 5 ⁰⁰ pm	Presentations	John Halocha (Bishop Grosseteste College, Lincoln) Images, perceptions and questions: Europe through the eyes of children in England
		Danuta Piróg (Pedagogical Academy in Krakow) The role of intercultural and foreign language education in preparing Polish children for living in UE countries – results of research in North Ireland
		Servet Karabag, Salih Sahin & Mustafa Öztürk (Erciyes University & Gazi University) Geography Curriculum of 2005 and its Reflections to Teacher Education Programmes of Geography in Turkey: Expectations and Recommendations
5 ⁰⁰ pm – 6 ⁰⁰ pm	A coach trip to the Castle in Golub–Dobrzyń (appr. 40 km from Toruń)
6 ⁰⁰ pm – 7 ⁰⁰ pm	Sightseeing tour of the Castle in Golub–Dobrzyń
7 ¹⁵ pm – 9 ³⁰ pm	Dinner at the Castle and the Medieval life attractions
9 ³⁰ pm – 10 ³⁰ pm	Arrival back in Toruń

SATURDAY, 7 October 2006
9 ⁰⁰ am – 10 ⁴⁵ am	Presentations	Aleksandra Zaparucha (10th Higher Secondary School in Toruń) How much English teaching in Geography teaching
		Mustafa Öztürk (Erciyes University, Eğitim Fakültesi Kayseri) European Dimension in Geography Teacher Education Programmes in Turkey: Student Teachers’ Experiences
		Dorota Grudzińska (Gdynia Bilingual High School No 3) Bilingual Geography Course
		Iwona Piotrowska (Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań) Cognitive and application aspects in the bilingual teaching of Geography
10 ⁴⁵ am – 11 ¹⁵ am	Coffee break
11 ¹⁵ am – 1 ¹⁵ pm	Presentations	Desmond John Bowden, Mark Chidler & Pam Copeland (Newman College of Higher Education Birmingham) Brussels: Enquiry Based Learning: more than just a way of thinking
		María Luisa De Lazaro Y Torres (Real Sociedad Geográfica) Spain in the web: a GIS way of teaching
		Cichoń Małgorzata (Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań) Pattern and environmental determinants of perception during experimental field classes
		Aleksandra Zaparucha (10th Higher Secondary School in Toruń) Teaching geography through a project: a European and a linguistic dimension
		Siarhei Kaptsiuh (2nd Higher Secondary School in Słupsk) Teaching Geography in English– Why not?
1 ¹⁵ pm – 1 ³⁰ pm	Arrival (by bus) at the Restaurant, Warszawska Str.
1 ³⁰ pm – 2 ³⁰ pm	Lunch at the Restaurant, Warszawska Str.
2 ³⁰ pm – 5 ⁰⁰ pm	Sightseeing tour of Toruń (a walk with a guide)
5 ⁰⁰ pm – 6 ³⁰ pm	Free time
6 ³⁰ pm – 9 ¹⁵ pm	Dinner and Conference evaluation– the Spichrz Restaurant, 1 Mostowa Str.
9 ¹⁵ pm – 9 ³⁰ pm	Arrival at the Hotel Filmar
SUNDAY, 8 October 2006
	Departure	