

Contents

Lesson no.	THEME	Page
	Introduction	5
	SECTION I. Global political and demographic changes	6
1	Globalisation in the modern world	6
2	Changes to the world political map	8
3	World population distribution	10
4	Contemporary demographic changes	12
5	Migration: causes and destinations	14
6	Diversity in urbanisation	16
7	Global cities: development and consequences	18
8	Civilisation and tradition in world development	20
9	Revision lesson: Global political and demographic changes	22
	SECTION II. Variations in world economies	24
10	Global social and economic inequalities	24
11	Aid given to areas affected by crisis	26
12	Variations in world agriculture	28
13	Variations in human nutrition	30
14	Changes in rural areas	32
15	Forest management	34
16	Maritime economy	36
17	Revision lesson: Wealth inequalities	38
18	Importance of energy resources	40
19	New forms of industrial organisation	42
20	Changing labour market	44
21	Developments in tourism	46
22	Importance of transport in the world	48
23	Telecommunications: in the economy and in everyday life	50
24	Processes integrating the world	52
25	Revision lesson: Inequalities in economic development	54

Lesson no.	THEME	Page
SECTION III. Sustainable development		56
26	Environmental imbalance	56
27	Areas of water surplus and water deficit	58
28	Human impact on climate change	60
29	Consequences of the exploitation of soils	62
30	Changes in relations between mankind and the environment	64
31	Revision lesson: Sustainable development	66
Additional tasks for students particularly interested in geography		68
SECTION I. Global political and demographic changes		68
SECTION II. Variations in world economies		69
SECTION III. Sustainable development		71
Literature		73
Blank maps		74
Glossary		77
Additional space for lesson notes or homework		80